Elite Modern Introduces A New Permanent Showroom

Las Vegas World Market Center

(Las Vegas, NV) – January 5, 2007 - Elite Manufacturing introduces a brand new showroom facility located in building B on the seventh floor of the World Market Center. The 2000 sq. ft showroom boasts several vignette areas, giving the presentation of products a very warm and welcoming feel. Becoming a part of this mega furniture pavilion paves a road to a bright future for the company and its efforts to increase sales and awareness in an ever-growing Industry.

The Las Vegas Market show located at the World Market Center is the country's largest new trade show for home furnishings. The downtown complex boasts two massive permanent showroom buildings with more than 3.25 million square feet.

With two Market Show dates each year, Elite Manufacturing now has the opportunity to increase its exposure to the world featuring its Modern, Studio and Entertainment collections. "To us, the World Market Center is an important place, it is there where we display our strength in cutting-edge designs that strike a perfect balance between form and function" says Elite's Vice President Michael Luong. The company plans to debut its new line of stainless steel occasional tables along with many other unique pieces at this month's show.
