The Halo Effect

Elite's Halo dining collection is a fantastic modern example

(Santa Fe Springs, CA) – July 11, 2007 - Elite Modern introduces its new Halo dining collection, designed by Carl Muller. The Halo promises a heavenly dining experience, combining style, comfort, and convenience. The chair boasts a sinuous Polished Chrome ribbon which encircles a fully upholstered contoured shell, all supported by a graceful Polished Chrome swivel base. Though compact in scale, the Halo chair provides big comfort, along with the ease of a swivel chair. The companion dining table echoes the lines of the chair, with Polished Chrome legs rising gracefully to grasp an oversized stainless steel disc that is permanently bonded to the ½" thick beveled tempered glass top.

The Halo collection shows great craftsmanship and expression. Carl shares, "I always try to bring softness to my designs, which can be a real challenge when working in metal. I'm very proud of the HALO collection– it has a fun, playful feeling, but it's still crisp and contemporary. There are lots of soft, sensuous curves, which make it both friendly and comfortable."

The Halo collection would be a great addition to any modern style home. Elite gives many options for customization to choose from including various shades of fine suede upholstery to rich, deep tones of leather! A fine dining ambience can be achieved by encompassing this wonderful Halo collection into the scene.
